

UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA, PETER A. ALLARD SCHOOL OF LAW AND THE CANADIAN RED CROSS PRESENT:

THE IMPACT OF RESTRICTIVE MEASURES ON HUMANITARIAN ACTION: THE CASE OF AFGHANISTAN

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2023, 12:30-1:45PM

PETER A. ALLARD SCHOOL OF LAW, FRANKLIN LEW FORUM, ALLARD HALL
1822 EAST MALL, UBC

AGENDA

12:30-12:35pm	Intro and Land Acknowledgment	James Stewart, Professor, Allard School of Law
12:35-12:40pm	Welcome Remarks	Pat Quealey, VP British Columbia & Yukon, Canadian Red Cross
12:40-12:50pm	Women and the law in Afghanistan Judge Rahimi will share reflections on the role of women in Afghanistan's legal system in the context of the 2021 regime change.	Judge Bibi Wahida Rahimi, Research Associate, Allard School of Law
12:50-1:20pm	Restrictive measures on humanitarian action This presentation explores how domestic legislation, including sanctions and other restrictive measures, have impacted the humanitarian response in Afghanistan.	Dr. Erica See, Senior Legal Counsel, Canadian Red Cross
1:20 - 1:40pm	Fireside Chat and Moderated Q&amp;A Period When are restrictions in violation of international humanitarian law? How do we balance domestic counterterrorism measures with the delivery of neutral and impartial humanitarian aid?	Moderated by Dr. Sophie Rondeau, Director and Legal Advisor, IHL education, Canadian Red Cross
1:40 - 1:45pm	Closing Remarks Sli.do Evaluations – survey online	Karyn Stone, IHL Coordinator, Canadian Red Cross

PETER A. ALLARD
SCHOOL OF LAW

Canadian
Red Cross

Croix-Rouge
canadienne